

Interviews for Research Positions

The Cognition and Social Equity Lab currently has available confederate and entry-level research assistant positions. These positions are ideal for someone who can commit at least 10 hours a week and is interested in pursuing graduate studies in research psychology. If you are interested in applying for either of these openings, please contact the lab manager, Jordan Seliger, at jmseliger@gmail.com or the lab coordinator, Dr. Avi Ben-Zeev, at abenzeev@sfsu.edu.

Please complete and include the form below with your inquiry.

Cognition and Social Equity Lab Questionnaire 2015-2016 Academic Year

Name:

Status in school:

Have you taken Psy 371 (or the equivalent) and/or are you enrolled?

yes

no

Have you taken Psy 400 (or the equivalent) and/or are you enrolled?

yes

no

Have you taken Psy 494 and/or are you enrolled?

yes

no

Position of interest (please select one):

Entry level research assistant

Research assistant

Undergraduate principle investigator

Post-bac researcher

Graduate student principle investigator

Previous and/or current research experience:

If you are currently in another lab, have you discussed this additional time commitment with the lab director and/or PI?

Current research interests:

Academic goals:

Professional goals:

What do you believe would make you a valuable addition to the Cognition and Social Equity Lab?

Are you available for a minimum of 10 hours per week (including weekly lab meetings, currently held Tuesdays 1-2:30pm)?

- yes
- no