

First Tracks and COR

For those of you who are considering

have considered might consider

could imagine considering

going to graduate school

Check out First Tracks and COR

First Tracks offers:

FIVE workshops in Spring 2009 semester on:

- Career Paths in Mental Health
- How to prepare for Graduate School
- How to write personal statements
- How to construct a Curriculum Vitae

Register NOW for Spring 2008

Go to <http://cor-sf.sfsu.edu>
or EP 236

Contacts:

Dr. Sacha Bunge; sbunge@sfsu.edu
Jaih McReynolds; jbmac@sfsu.edu
(415) 405-3562

COR at SFSU

Career Opportunities in Research
(Funded by NIMH)

COR at SFSU

Mission

to help underrepresented students

get into graduate school in mental health related fields

(Psychology, Sociology, Social Work, Counseling, Ethnic Studies, Anthropology, Neuroscience)

COR is a two-year mentoring program that provides

1. Financial support (stipend, tuition, books, supplies and travel to professional conferences)
2. Mentoring experience with faculty
3. Research skills development
4. Professional Development
5. Summer Research Internship
6. GRE preparation
7. Guidance in applying to graduate school

COR at SFSU

Eligibility Criteria:

- Underrepresented backgrounds (including ethnic minority and low socioeconomic status)
- junior or senior standing
- GPA @ 3.0 or higher
- interest in a career in mental health research

APPLY IN THE SPRING

Go to <http://cor-sf.sfsu.edu>
or EP 236

Contacts:

Dr. Sacha Bunge; sbunge@sfsu.edu
Jaih McReynolds; jbmac@sfsu.edu
(415) 405-3562