

Figure 5: Planimetric map. The map is controlled with azimuth readings taken along the stream and connecting to the benchmark sign. Additionally, the measured distances, wetted widths, and bankfull widths are drawn to a scale of one inch represents ten meters.